Issue 12

One week is Re-Opening Ceremonies. Contracts will be offered to attendees, but only if/when the Scavenger Hunt is completed. In other words, if you show up but leave before completing the event then no contract will be offered.

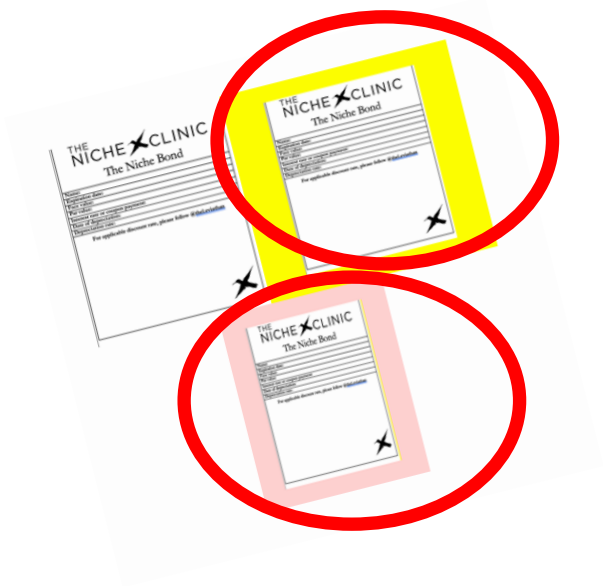

Saturday, Dec 9 Counter Culture,
12pm - 3pm 514 South Street

RE-OPENING CEREMONIES

$75-$100 contracts will be re-offered during an epic Niche Coin scavenger hunt across South Philly and South Center City.
Food and dessert provided

Parking stinks and The Niche Clinic cannot reimburse for parking. Free SEPTA passes are available for you and your family before the event, just make sure to request them in advance. Parents are encouraged to observe presentations.

Students from Camden Prep, String Theory and Olney are eligible for bonuses if they attend this event, since they already have contracts.

Bonuses come in the form of "coupons" (Niche Bonds) or dividends (Niche Stocks.)

See you all next weekend!
